This wine blends Chardonnay grapes, hand-harvested from two of our estate vineyards. The cooler Los Alamos and Goodchild Vineyards provide this wine with distinct pear, peach and stone fruit complexity and a hint of lemony-citrus. It is a pure expression of the fruit grown on vines from the Los Alamos and Goodchild Vineyards in Northern Santa Barbara County.

Tasting Notes. As a blend of two estate vineyards, the cooler Los Alamos and Goodchild Vineyards provide this wine with distinct pear, peach and stone fruit complexity and a hint of lemony-citrus.

Winemaking: The Chardonnay grapes were cold fermented and underwent a partial secondary fermentation in 24% neutral oak.

Food Pairing: Raw Oyster, Ceviche and Crudo.
